SPRING BREAK IS COMING!

By Sarah Olsen

As the weather warms up, the biggest upcoming event for all Madrilenos is Easter vacation, referred to as Spring Break in the United States. Most schools will have at least a week and a half off.

Most of Spain's biggest cities are just a train or bus ride away, so all that remains is the go-ahead to travel. With Spanish cases on the decrease, perhaps that will be possible. Vaccines are also starting to be distributed. Make sure you have everything you might need document-wise should you choose to travel.

NEW ACCOMODATION SECTION OF THE WEBSITE COMING SOON

By Sarah Olsen

Richard has shared that there will soon be an accomodation section of the website which will show open rooms and apartments available to rent. This will make it that much easier when you make the big move to Madrid.

Stay tuned to see any new options.
